

P01 → Fragile Balance

The installation engages the soul in a dialogue about the fragility and resilience of life, urging viewers to reflect on our place within the natural world and the profound cycles which define our existence. The visual and metaphysical journey serves as a reminder of nature's delicate balance and our responsibility to preserve it, making of every sphere a bridge to understanding vital balance—one which connects and sustains us all.

French Institute of Mauritius (IFM)
Rose Hill, Mauritius

2021